CAREER OBJECTIVE

As an experienced and passionate German film director and producer I am looking for an effective position where I can utilize my skills and creativity in a global platform. My aims are the creation of good films to entertain and move international audiences. I strive to convey touching and meaningful stories in my works for festivals.

SKILLS PROFILE

I have the capability to motivate and handle film crews, budgets, and modern digital equipment efficiently. My artistic skills encompass the conception, creation, and distribution of award-winning narrative and documentary films. For my productions, I collaborate closely with gifted writers, photogenic actors, and experienced technicians to create entertainment, valuable information, and art. I operate digital video and DSLR photo cameras, lenses, lights, and sound equipment on a daily basis. As an editor I work with recent versions of Adobe Premiere Pro and Final Cut Pro. Office software and the internet belong to my tools.

I possess good managerial and leadership qualities which I use to direct and produce movies. I love to organize and host annual international film workshops in Berlin since 2007. With my initiative KinoBerlino I inspired several new groups within the world's largest open filmmakers network. Together with designers, IT experts, and musicians I create the PR campaigns myself, acquire funding, and coordinate the registration of participants. As a passion, I curate cinema events on a monthly basis. My role as director and ambassador of the Kino-Movement gives me a chance to travel to European festivals and fraternize with the decision makers.

Before my film career I graduated from Humboldt-University in my hometown Berlin with an excellent M.A. degree in English / American and Cultural Studies. My thesis dealt with digital postmodernity, cyber-fiction, film and New Media. Every day I speak German and English. Some rudimentary Russian, Swedish, and Spanish may be added. I own a diving license for open water and a German passport.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- From 1997 to 2017 I produced, directed, and edited about 164 movies in 24 cities in 12 European countries with my production company APEIRON FILMS. My genre experience ranges from short comedy, drama, commercial, and image video to experiments, news items. We create music videos, documentaries, road movies, behavioral studies, fantasy pieces. I write about half of my scripts myself.
- For twelve years I have been collaborating with numerous talents on their projects as DoP, editor, actor, boom operator and sound mixer, script doctor, co-producer, or co-director. I use my connections with these passionate talents to further our artistic careers and expand our reach.
- As president of a large film association I moderate the dialogue between young and old filmmakers to coordinate 3 to 5 annual local cinema festivals. I know the bureaucracy involved in such endeavors.
- I published about 111 film critiques and festival descriptions online at my FILM-REPORT.NET and for other print magazines such as FILM & VIDEO. Furthermore, I published poetry and academic texts.
- As distributor I create and design DVDs and other media with Photoshop and encoding software.
- My work as mentor also includes creative poetry writing and film production classes since 1997. This results in various publications, awards, and the acceptance of the talents at prestigious institutions.
- Other activities include jury work for film festivals, guest curator at Milano IFF 2016, beta-testing of video games and websites, translation jobs (English / German), journalism, and photography.
